Fifty and Better Program Continues Summer Lecture Series

THOUSANDAKSCA—As California Lutheran University's Fifty and Better (F&B) program begins its fifth year, it is proud to announce the FABulous Summer Lecture series which continues through July and August.

The summer series offers individual and two-part lectures on a wide range of topics. All 2-hour lectures will be available virtually, and nearly half of the lectures; ~~Some~~ will be delivered in a "HyFlex" format – FAB students can attend in-person or virtually. Students attending virtually will access the lecture

All individual (standalone) lectures meet for two hours. FAB's in-person lectures will meet on

Devoted participant, Cherie Wrigley shared, "I love so many of the class offerings and they keep me very engaged on a regular basis. I love learning in this way. People around me are surprised because I
