FORMMEDIATERELEASE

UNIVERSITY VEICOURSES FFEREDOTHECOMMUNITY Fifty and Better Program Announces the 2022 Winter Session

THOUSANDAKSCA—Beginning in Januar California Lutheran University's Fifty and Better (FAB) program will offerfour independentlectures and &-week Winter SessionAll 2hour independent lectures will be available virtually (accessible via Zoom), with two courses delivered in a "HyFlex" format FAB students may attend presson or virtually simultaneously.

In the HyFlex format, Katherine Zoraster will gave istorical overview of British Art and explore important works found at the Huntington Art Gallery in San Marino, Carry Ginell wild elebrate the careers of Black singers and musicians wised their popularity to promote equality and activism the United States

In virtual course offering Elegner Schreder will begin two-part course on American Design, starting vid Parsons will delve into the evolution of Amerion Hensley will examine the connection between oduce (imtreduce) the legendary hotels and resthe city of Alexandria, from its beginning with Alexanoch will discuss the causes, conduct, and consehour lectures via kaminethe art that wascreatedandleft behind the HarveyHousesandarchitectureof Mary ColneseAmericanNationalMuseum(spaces limited