

Born to Shine: LGBTQIA+ National Coming Out Day Celebration

Wednesday, Oct. 11 Noon to 1:30 p.m.
Kingsmen Park

The LGBTQIA+ Faculty and Staff Affinity Group invites you to stop by Kingsmen Park during lunch hour to connect with us and learn more about our work on campus to support LGBTQIA+ faculty, staff and students.

In support of PRIDE's programming to observe National Coming Out Day, we invite LGBTQIA+ faculty, staff and students, as well as our straight allies, to take action and consider the ways that coming out as LGBTQIA+ still matters on campus and off.

For more information, email tcd@CalLutheran.edu.

This event is sponsored by the Office of Talent, Culture and Diversity, and coordinated in partnership with the LGBTQIA+ Faculty and Staff Affinity Group.

Latinx Queer Trans Leadership: A Movement for Freedom in the U.S. South

Thursday, Oct. 19 12:25-2:05 p.m.
Swenson 101

Social-movement historian and longtime organizer Rafael Solórzano traces the roots of Latinx freedom movements in the U.S. South. From the perspective of a participant-observer, Solórzano maps the strategies and mobilizations led by women of color and queer trans leadership within migrant rights organizations in Florida and Georgia.

Inspired by Gloria Anzaldúa, who contended that Chicanos listen to what their
